

Calling all Bondsmen

You do not want to miss the Professional Bondsmen of Texas 3rd Quarterly Membership meeting or the Advanced Bail Bond Course August 6-8, 2009 at the Radisson Hotel Fossil Creek in Fort Worth!

The PBT Program & Speaker Committee has planned an outstanding program beginning with the Thursday night (August 6) Welcome Reception sponsored by Tarrant County and Parker County Professional Bondsmen associations. The reception offers an excellent opportunity to network with fellow bondsmen from around the state while enjoying a cold beverage and hors d'oeuvres.

On Friday, August 7, former Secretary of State Tom Wilder will welcome attendees to Fort Worth to kick-off the 3rd Quarter Membership meeting and Dee Anderson, Tarrant County Sheriff, will speak to the audience concerning bonding issues. And if that is not enough, the Honorable Deborah Nekhom, District Judge, Tarrant County Criminal Court #4, will discuss the Direct Program in Fort Worth during the membership luncheon.

Along with these guest speakers, Scott Walstad, PBT Vice President and Chairperson of the PBT Legislative Committee will present a summary of the outcome of the 81st Legislative session and how it will affect the Texas bail bond industry as well as a forecast of what to expect in the next session in 2011. And President John McCluskey will update members on goals, activities and plans for PBT in the upcoming months.

Make your hotel reservations at the Radisson Hotel Fossil Creek before July 16 to receive the discounted rate if $119 + tax and fax your registration form to PBT Headquarters (512-467-6664)

If you have any questions, call PBT Headquarters (512-467-2722). We look forward to seeing you in Fort Worth!
